

Turn-N-Seal

Hello! We make vacuum easy

Vacuum
Storage

All type of food storage

You enjoy delicious meals, but also want food stay fresh and tasty even a few days after you prepare it? Turn-N-Seal retains the original flavors of any food or groceries

Why is so simple and easy?

The lid is thinner than a slice of pizza, but incredibly powerful and functional. Its ability to create an extremely vacuum with only ONE move.

Let me tell you why it worth it.

On average, you need 10 turns on the lid to create the vacuum. Accordingly, if you vacuum the food on daily base you can safely use the product for 5,000 days. So, more than 10 years you will not generate or waste any plastic bag pollution.

Moisture prevent is key

Not only just take off the oxygen, completely prevent the surrounding moisture coming in is another key to keep the inner product dry and fresh.

Vacuum you can see

We want you to be sure about the performance of our product. That's why we create a vacuum system that you can see and understand. When the vacuum is switched on, the silicon indicator sinks.

We want to tell you how easy to clean Turn-N-Seal

The biggest enemy of vacuum container is the dust that can penetrate the lid. We combined our creative ideas with the cutting-edge technological design; we create a simple way of opening and cleaning out product.

Stronger than a mug but lighter

Turn-N-Seal is so strong that it will not deform even if it is subject to strong negative pressure. It also successfully overcome external influences and is not damaged in everyday use. Well, at the same time, its so easy and compact that its impossible not to love it.

Storage space optimize

As the picture shows, you will be able to store 6 liters in a space of only 13". The smart, rectangular design of the product will help you to maximize the limited space in your kitchen.

With refrigerator, even better

The secret to the perfect good storage is a vacuum+refrigerator. You deserve the best, and we offer you exactly that. When you first try this combination, you will realize that Turn-N-Seal is designed specifically for you.
